dedication

We dedicate the '67 CHIMES to President Francis S. Hutchins. We are honoring him, of course, but we are also honoring the kind of man he is and the qualities that are his, qualities that are worth close consideration and emulation.

Our President is a man who believes that convictions and ideas are more valuable than material things.

He believes that the future of a nation, or a state—or a community—is decided finally by what goes on in the minds of its people.

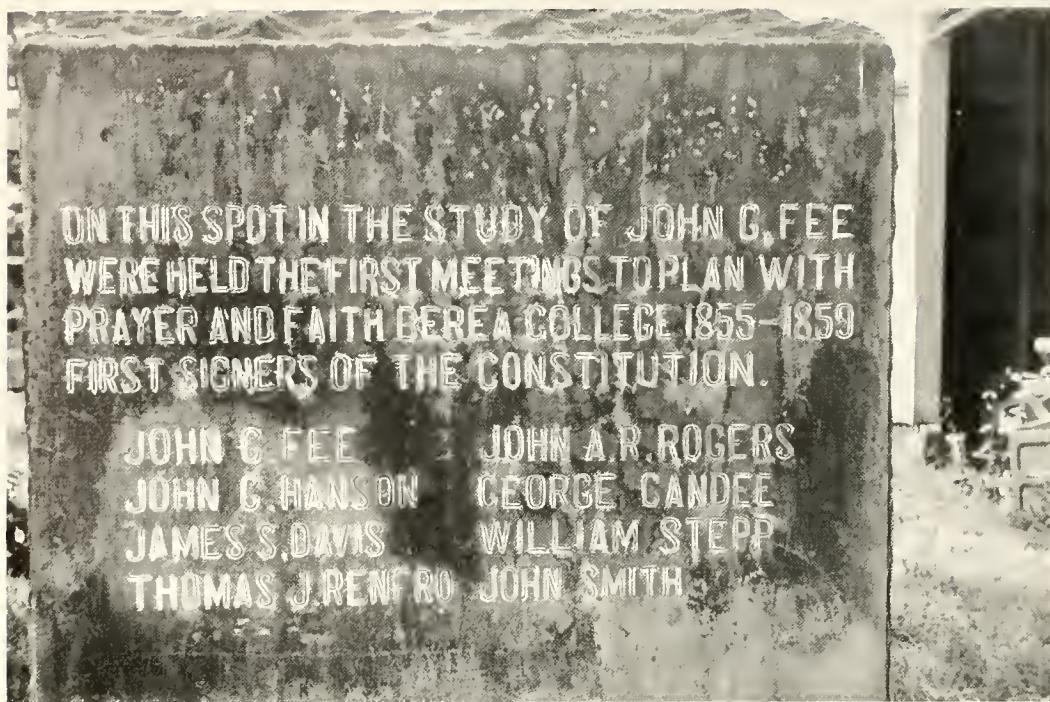

He assumes that a man's color or the slant of his eyes does not determine his right to develop into whatsoever he is capable of developing into.

He is, in other words, MR. BEREa, in our eyes. We dedicate a book; he has dedicated a life.

We hope to emulate him.

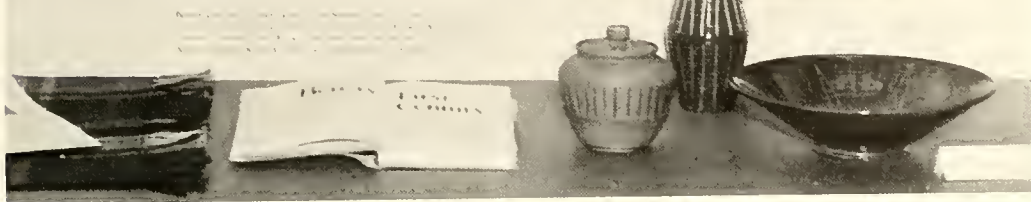

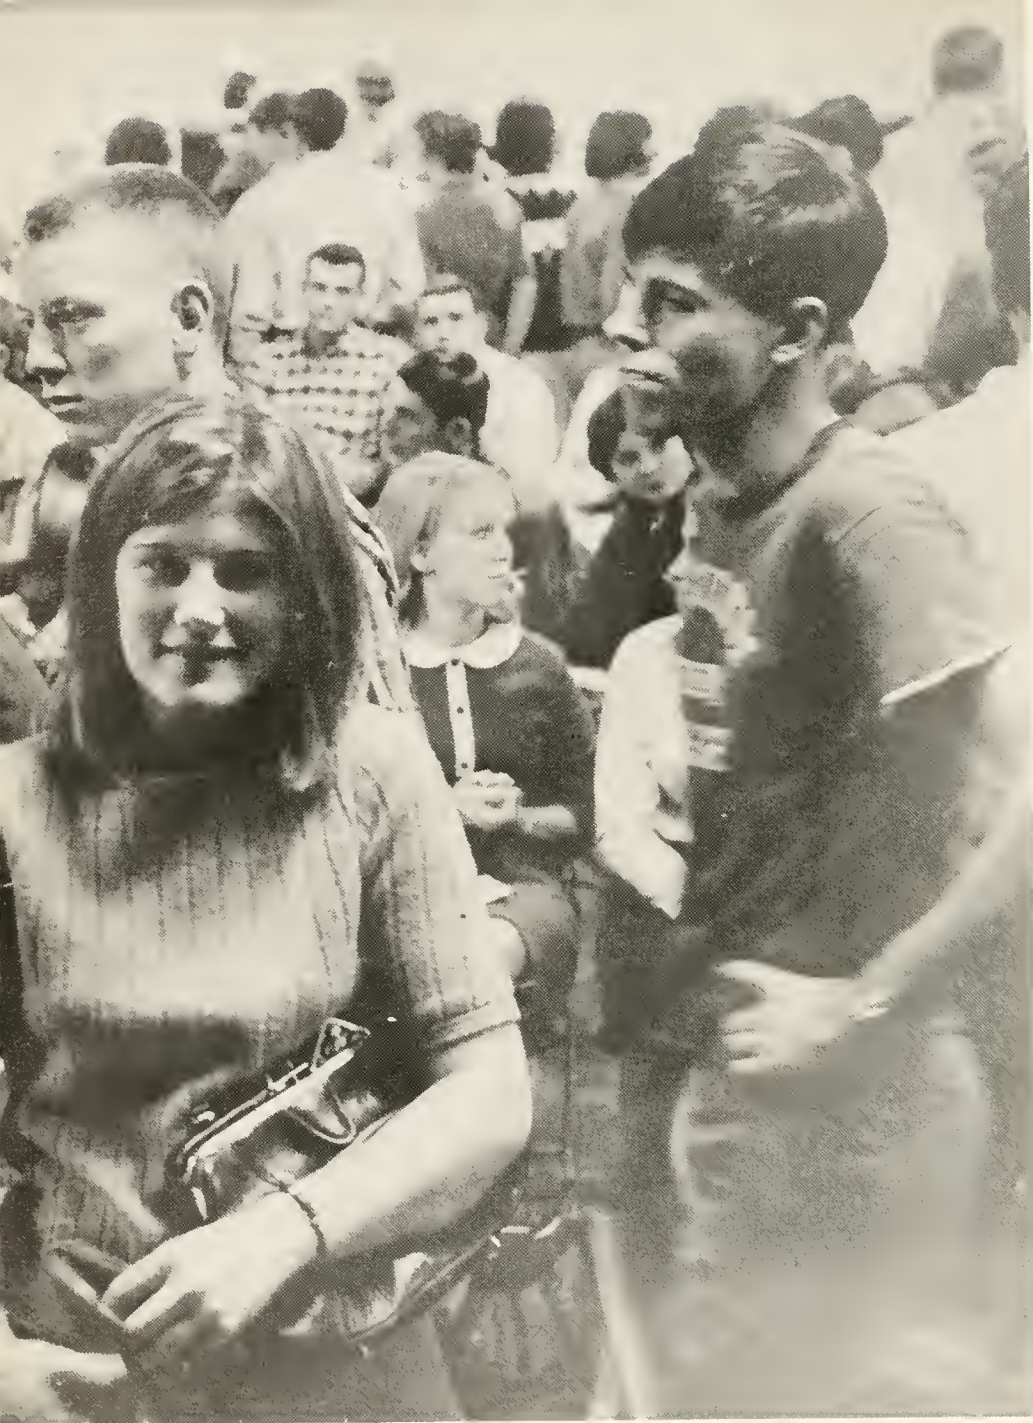

BEREA COLLEGE — THE WORLD IS OUR TERRITORY
 APPALACHIA, OUR HOME
 WE CAME SEEKING EDUCATION
 FOUND LIFE
 AND STOOD STILL IN A WHIRLING ISOLATION.
 FOR SOME SUCCESS
 FOR OTHERS FAILURE
 BUT THERE WAS MEMORY
 MERGING THE PAST WITH THE PRESENT.

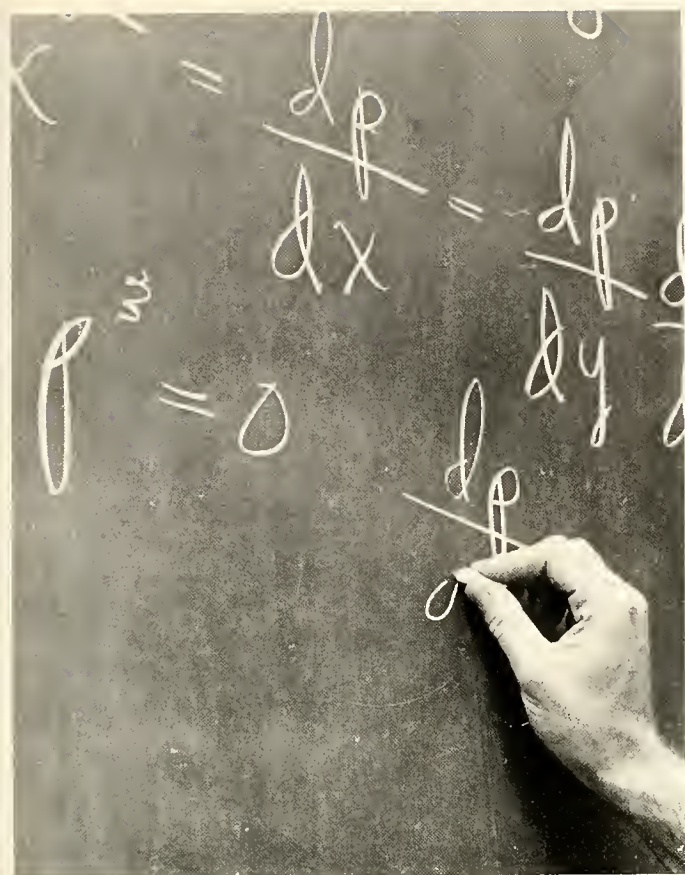

A COMMUNITY FUNCTIONING AS A BODY
LEARNING THE MEANING OF CONCERN
AND THE DEGREES OF PATIENCE,
UNDERSTANDING THROUGH FRIENDS
THAT WE ARE OF ONE BLOOD.

AN OLD FRIEND BECOMES HISTORY.
A NEW ONE — CARPETED
AND CUSHIONED — BECOMES OUR STOREHOUSE
OF KNOWLEDGE

GOD HATH MADE OF ONE BLOOD
ALL NATIONS OF MEN

dedication

The 1967 Chimes is dedicated to a person who himself is dedicated and rededicated to us, to Berea Foundation, Mr. Milton Pearson. Mr. Pearson has given a personal touch; he has made a place where students felt free to go to cry, to laugh, to share one's pride in an accomplishment. And through all of this informality, Mr. Pearson remained a person of ageless dignity and authority. His qualities of an open door, an open ear, and an open heart have led quickly to success and achievement. The rare gift of always bringing out the best of one fits Mr. Pearson in the true definition of a friend.
